

Youth Worker Background Information

- Being the Youth Worker at Wesley Church is an exciting and challenging role.
- Leading Fusion Youth & Kids on a Thursday night, followed by Fusion+, is a role that requires good organisational, leadership and team building skills – along with of course a love of working with children; developing relationships with them and their families and sharing God's love.
- Plenty of energy and enthusiasm is required as this role involves setting up equipment, leading talks and singing, facilitating group games and activities, and the general oversight of a busy Thursday night with up to 100 children.
- Being able to motivate and encourage volunteer helpers is an essential part of the role, as their support in the youth work is crucial.
- The Youth Worker role at Wesley is a rewarding one and comes with much support from the Leadership Team and Church Family.
